

Queen Elizabeth School

QEII Connections

Attention Autism

Parent/Carer Coffee Morning

Thursday 19th March, 9.30-11.00am

QEII School Site

Join us for an informative coffee morning exploring everything Attention Autism! Karen Marklew is our Advanced Practitioner and trainer and will be talking about what Attention Autism is and how QEII School uses this valuable and worldwide teaching approach to support students to develop engagement and attention skills whilst promoting natural and spontaneous communication supporting them to access their learning.

Karen is the HLTA for Communication at QEII School.

All parents & carers welcome
No need to RSVP

We hope to see you there!

Please note that we have no car parking available on the school site.
Please park nearby with care and attention to respecting our neighbours and then walk into school.