

20/12/19

Yoimoji of the Week

Queen Elizabeth School

Roly the Empathetic Raccoon

Eddie has been showing empathy by using people's names when he is talking to them and comforting them when they are hurt.

Well done Seth for showing empathy through the enjoyment of watching his friends dance.

Firs Class
Akbar, for responding to other people's feelings.

Well done Amy M-T for showing empathy towards Lily and reading her a story.

Well done Callum for showing empathy for Steph (the school nurse) when she choked on her Christmas dinner

Well done Katie for being so empathetic this week because she was worried when Jie had a fishbone stuck in her throat and wished her to get well soon

Well done Lottie for giving Theo a hug when he was feeling sad.

Well done Hazel for being understanding and helpful with Julia's diabetes.

Well done Zach for showing empathy in the story when you knew the boy in the story was sad.

Empathy - Kelsey and Anthony tried to comfort Layton when he was tired and upset.

Well done Poppy for showing empathy at home and understanding at school.

