This Week

OFSTED: A big thank you for all your support over the last two days during our OFSTED inspection, we look forward to sending you all the report as soon as we have it which will be sometime after half term.

School Meal Costs: We have been notified by WSCC that the cost of school meals rose to £2.30 per day (from £2.20) at the start of this term. Tracey will be adjusting the invoices for the next half term to take this into account.

Primary Open Morning: Primary Department (Willows, Palms, Chestnut, Beech & Elms) have their open morning this coming Tuesday (17th October) from 10.30-11.30. Please do join us to see what your children have been working on.

Shoebox Appeal: We are taking part in the Link to Hope Family Shoebox Appeal again this year. Full details will be sent home next week, but you can find out about the sort of items we want to collect here:

Sensory Shakespeare

Our Shakespeare performance season began this week with our Sensology based production of "The Tempest." This told the story through the senses using music, lighting effects, food and massage.

Our performance of "The Taming of the Shrew" is still to come - and don't forget you'll need to buy tickets for "The Merry Wives of Windsor" from The Capitol's box office. Our performance there is on Tuesday 21st November.

Class News from Pines Class

We have had a fantastic week in Pines class, experimenting with our brand new karaoke machine from the PTFA to create some soulful tunes. We also had a wonderful trip out to Southwater park. Who can spot our parent helper who managed to clamber her way down the long rope bridge with a little help from Pines members?

Class News from Cedar Class

We have been learning about colour mixing, tint and shade in art. We have been mixing primary colours together to create secondary colours and adding black and white to different coloured paints to create different shades and tints. We have been thinking about our favourite colours and which colours are 'warm' and 'cold'.
