

Yoimoji of the Week

JAZZLE CREATIVE

James has been creative this week when creating snowflakes to decorate the classroom.

Bobby has been creative this week by making beautiful handmade butterflies to represent his story writing, as well as drawing lots of amazing cartoons at home.

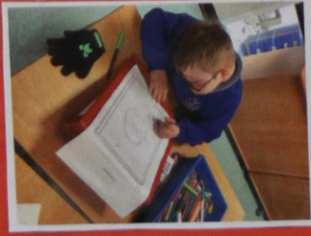

Noah has been creative this week by exploring with different mixtures in class!

Amelia was very creative in our class maths session, she followed step by step video instructions really well to create a plastercine snail and then a visual instruction sheet to make a snake.

Jayden has shown great creativity this week by creating his own Roald Dahl book cover.

Maryellen has been creative by making marks in the frosty playground.

Robert has been creative this week creating his Balloon prints in art and cutting out the circles to make a collage.

Hugo enjoyed being creative this week and made a glittery snowflake. He worked carefully and is enjoying our Winter topic.

Summer has been very creative drawing and painting pictures.

Ella has spent many mornings completing mindful colouring pages!

Daniel has been creative this week in designing his own sword for King Arthur.

Jazzle is creative.
I'm full of new ideas. It's great fun coming up with different ways to do things and express myself.
