

QEII School

QEII Connections

Playing is the Best Way of Learning!

Parent/Carer Coffee Morning

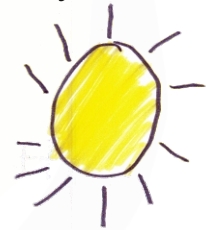

Thursday 17th September, 9.30-11.00am

QEII School Site

Playing is the best way of learning! Join us for an insightful session led by two of our specialist teachers, Amy Boughey & Nicole Robson. They will take us on a journey through creativity, social emotional abilities, language, literacy, maths and science skills and lots more.

We will explore different activities that are child and parent friendly using materials and items you have at home. Don't miss it!

“Play” artwork by QEII students

All parents & carers welcome

No need to RSVP

We hope to see you there!

Please note that we have no car parking available on the school site.
Please park nearby with care and attention to respecting our neighbours and then walk into school.