This Week

MFL Day: Next Wednesday, 20th March, we are having a Modern Foreign Languages day. Each class will be learning about a different country, then coming together in the afternoon to share food and music. We are asking everyone to come in dressed in the colour(s) of their class's country. Full details are in the letter that was sent/emailed home on Wednesday.

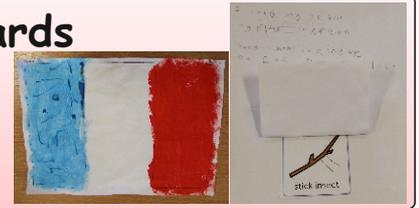

Easter Chicks for Sale: We are selling knitted Easter chicks, containing either a hollow chocolate or Cadbury's creme egg. They are available for £1 from school reception and are raising money for the Horsham branch of Age UK.

Parent Support Group Postponement: The Parent Support Group on Behaviour on 28th March has had to be postponed. We will let you know as soon as we have set a new date.

INSET Day: Our final INSET day for this school year is on Tuesday 23rd April.

Student Council Awards

Katie, Beech - French flag painting
Brandon, Limes - Stick insect work

Class News from Beech Class

Beech Class have been enjoying learning about their new topic Europe! We have been learning about Germany, we tried pretzels and learnt how to say hello in German. As part of our Literacy lesson we looked at 'Little Red Riding Hood' we chose our favourite character and wrote a speech bubble for what they may say. We enjoyed using masks to role play the characters.

Class News from Chestnut Class

We have had a fun couple of weeks getting to know our new teachers, Danielle and Sarah. The class has been out to Tilgate, the shops and the park. During a history lesson we learnt about Neil Armstrong and dressed up like an astronaut! We really enjoyed meeting the 'Animazing' animals last week - Daniel was very happy to meet the bull frog!
