

Yoimoji of the Week

Scoop the Curious Dog

Ruby was very curious and explored a range of resources when creating a maraca.

Scoop is curious.

I love finding things out. If I don't know how something works, I just ask questions.

Well done Oscar for being curious in comparing this week. You found out more information about Brazil by searching for images and learning how to save these.

Well done Jamie for being curious about numbers this week.

David is always curious and likes to know how things work. He liked using the Newton-meters a couple of weeks ago to find out how much different items weighed.

This week Katie has been very curious, asking lots of brilliant questions about our learning!

Max was curious about the rice crispies and enjoyed playing with them with some support.

Oscar has been curious with ice and autumn items.

Well done Jamie for being fantastically curious about aliens!

Well done Leo when you were curious and tried a blueberry in sensory drama.
