I've been staring at the sun through broken leaves,

As the season changes from blue to grey,

I've crossed the stile to reach the trees,

I know I'm going to find my way,

Chorus

Back home to you,

Back home to you,

I know I'm gonna find my way,

Back home to you.

The rain peppered a sunlit stream,
That faded with the end of the day,
I walked the miles I knew so well,
I know I'm going to find my way,

Chorus: Back home to you...etc.

Do you remember the night when I called you,
And what I had to say,
Although the light was fading fast,
I know I'm going to find my way,

Chorus: Back home to you...etc.

And when I leave in a little while,
You will want me to stay,
You know that I will soon return,
I know I'm going to find my way,

Chorus: Back home to you...etc.
