This Week

Happy New Year: We hope you all enjoyed a lovely Christmas break. It's been great to see everyone back in school this week.

Bud & Flower Donation: We would like to say a big Thank You to local florist Bud and Flower, who raised £263 for us at their Christmas Santa's Grotto and shop display.

M&M Theatre Visit: All our students enjoyed the latest visit from M&M Theatrical Productions on Wednesday, when they performed their version of the pantomime "Snow White." Thank you to the Happy Days Children's Charity for their continued funding of these performances.

Headteacher's Award Winners

Robert W, Astronauts: Amazing writing this week.

Yoimoji of the Week:

Dufflepaw

This week's Yoimoji was Dufflepaw the reflective koala. We are using "Yoimojis" in our Assemblies, to help with learning and celebrating OFSTED's Fundamental British Values.

Yoimoji is a blend of the Japanese words "yoi" (good) and "emoji" (slang for character.) You can see our Yoimoji posters on our website's news pages.

Dufflepaw is reflective.

I think about things that have happened. When I look back calmly, I can understand and share what I learn.

Christmas Catchup!

We had so many different things happening at the end of last term that we didn't manage to fit them all into the newsletter! Here are some more photos of our festive fun, including the class cookie making competition entries and some Christmas Jumper Day photos.
